

To complete the model, the bust was cemented to the wooden base, the plinth painted black, and a nameplate from Name It! attached (www.nameitplates.co.uk).

Summary

I have to say that I really enjoyed painting this bust a second time around, more so than the first. As mentioned earlier, although the bust was first released in 1998 it still has a presence today so will proudly adorn a modeller's collection. In my opinion it is well worth having and, if asked to paint this bust again, would I? Without hesitation!
